Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the Colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States, was made possible.

RESOLUTION # 5-4-94-A

- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and a treaty tribe recognized by the laws of the United States, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV, Section 1 of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council, and
- WHEREAS, the growth of the Oneida Tribe in the areas of economic, community, and enterprise development warrants skilled tradespeople for this development, and
- WHEREAS, the growth of the Oneida Tribe must include the growth and development of our human resources in preparation for apprenticeable trades and the opportunities for individuals to train for jobs that pay higher wages, and carry transferrable life-long skills, and
- WHEREAS, an apprenticeship program will provide new employment and training opportunities to community members, and
- WHEREAS, the Interim Oneida Apprenticeship Committee has been established to address the need for an apprenticeship program and develop operating guidelines for implementation, and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: the Interim Oneida Apprenticeship Committee will seek certification for the Standards of Apprenticeship for the Oneida Nation of Wisconsin Apprenticeship Program through the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that once the Oneida Nation of Wisconsin Apprenticeship Program is certified by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training, the newly appointed Oneida Nation Joint Apprenticeship Commission will take the place of the Interim Oneida Apprenticeship Committee after a three month training and transition period.

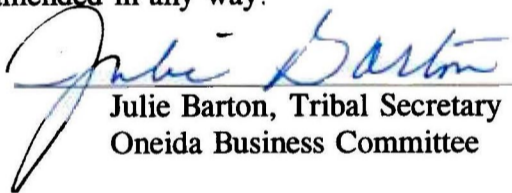

Resolution # 5-4-94-A
