Oneidas bringing several hundred bags of corn to Washington's starving army at Valley Forge, after the colonists had consistently refused to aid them.

UGWA DEMOLUM YATEHE
Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

RESOLUTION # 7-13-94-D

- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and a Treaty Tribe recognized by the laws of the United States, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governmental body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV, Section 1 of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council, and
- WHEREAS, the goal of the Oneida Tribe is to protect, maintain, and promote self-sufficiency and self reliance by developing family literacy initiatives designed to establish literacy as an important family value and break inter-generational cycles of illiteracy, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe through the Oneida Library is responsible for providing a facility to allow participants to experience families reading together with the integration of Oneida cultural activities to help support the strength of the family, and
- WHEREAS, to support this effort, the proposed project will instill practices of family literacy through crafts and activities that will enhance and promote literacy within the household and extended family.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, authorizes and submits this grant application to The Barbara Bush Literacy Foundation for Family literacy for the purpose of promoting family oriented literacy as an important family value with the integration of Oneida cultural activities.
